It was great to see you all again, especially after the retreats! Thank you again for moving the meeting date to the following week. I hope you all are still working on our Chapter quilt, since it is a pretty informal block of the month I will be sending out the remainder of the blocks soon, that way you can finish when you have the chance. With the holidays coming up I know we all will be busy with family.

I hope the following have a great birthday, LaHonda Littleton, Kim Shamblin, Terri Powell, Harriette Black, Marianne Lively, and Kristie Schutz!

Please continue to think of ideas that we want to accomplish this upcoming year, we will discuss them at our next meeting.

Look forward to seeing you at the Guild Christmas Party!!- Kim

Sunshine Chapter met November 7, 2024 at the Carolyn Rose Strauss Center 1:30pm. Ruth Davison presented the program on dolls she makes to donate to the Grant Parrish Sheriff's Department. Kathie Hebert also presented a project from Quilt and Stitch. Next meeting will be December 5, 2024. Bring finger food for a light refreshment and Christmas fellowship

Grateful Threads

President: Tomi Tharp
Secretary: Teresa Thomas
Historian: Angi Sandifer

Vice President: Donna Gwin
Treasurer: Peggy Moffett
Board Rep: Lucy Holtzclaw

Members of Grateful Threads met Monday, November 4, at the Carolyn Rose Strauss Senior Center.

Member Lucy Holtzclaw offered a special program “Photo your Favorite Quilt”. Lucy and her husband Robert setup the photo shoot and photographed members quilts. Lucy captured several shots of each quilt and will provide to the member for personal use. This was a fabulous idea and very kind of Lucy to provide this special event. Thanks Lucy!

While the photoshoot was happening, Donna Gwin led members in a game of “Quilter’s Strip Poker”. The game used jelly roll strips for chips and allowed members to win a variety of fun strips. There were many laughs and all enjoyed the fun!

Our group also participated in River Raffle fun to raise money for the chapter.

The chapter will not meet in December. We will join all chapters at the Guild Christmas Party on December 14.
