Hello fellow quilters.

Christmas is upon us and a new year is in sight. Our quarterly Christmas meeting was a huge success. Thanks to all who brought finger foods and did the decorations. They were delicious and beautiful.

The door prizes from Quiltfolk magazine were added to the other door prizes. Thanks to those who made the door prizes. They were very nice.

Susan Wible did an excellent job on last year's challenge to do something new and this year's challenge to go green. The something new projects were very different and pretty. Can't wait to see next year's projects.

Continue to work on your UFO's and Christmas projects. I have been able to finish 6 UFO's. Still have quite a bunch left to do.

Wishing all a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

Sunshine met and revealed our Scrap bag Challenge projects. We had such a variety of projects made from quilts, bears, table runners, bags, water bottle carriers, name tag holders, charity projects, and many more. Renea showed the projects for December and we ATE a lot of good food. We will meet again on January 5, 2023 at the Carolyn Rose Strauss Senior Center in Monroe. We will be working on Post Card projects.

Grateful Threads' members had a great time at the quarterly meeting held in December! We would like to thank the Moonlight chapter for hosting, They really did a great job! The food was plentiful and delicious and everyone enjoyed the opportunity to come together and celebrate. THANK YOU MOONLIGHT!

Grateful Threads will be meeting in ZOOM for January. We will be showing off our 2022 completed projects from guild challenges and chapter challenges or just anything you COMPLETED this past year. Also, show off what you STARTED in 2022, even if its a work STILL in progress! We would ask you to take pictures of what you want to show off during the January ZOOM meeting and email to angisand@gmail.com by December 28th, 2022. All submitted pictures will be added to ZOOM and displayed on the screen for everyone to see when it comes your turn to share! You can still have your creations on hand to display from your livestream.

2023 looks to be a fun and busy year for our Chapter! We have many exciting and educational programs scheduled for the upcoming year. We will be starting Renee Joiner's Holiday/Seasonal Display Block of the Month this year! We will have more information at our January meeting so I hope to see you all there. Thank you to each and every one of our members for making Grateful Thread's the fun and interesting community it is.

Lisa Taylor showed up for the December quarterly meeting in style with her holiday fascinator!

Sheri Bergeron and Lisa Taylor at the Quarterly Meeting.

Tomi Tharp gifted some very useful fabric clips to Donna Gwin! Donna was so grateful for such a thoughtful gesture

I can't believe we've already made it to the holidays. It was so much fun to see everyone's Guild Challenge projects at the Christmas party this month. One of the best parts of the guild, for me at least, is getting to see so many beautiful projects that others have made. Everyone is so talented, and I thank you for sharing your projects and knowledge with us all.

Moonlight did not have a meeting in December. We will be back at Material Things January 5th at 6pm for our January meeting. The program will be led by Dianne White and will be "Making a Parts Bin Quilt." Everyone always needs a new way to use those precious, leftover pieces of fabric. Come gather and learn with us as we start the new year sewing!

Merry Christmas and Happy New Year!
