Hello Morning Stars!

We had a great meeting on the 6th of May. We actually got done and were at lunch before all the storms hit the area.

Several of our ladies have been missing out on our meetings, we look forward to seeing you soon. Don't forget it's that time again for dues.

Many of us are working on getting those UFO's completed. Especially with the Quilt Show just around the corner!

We are also working on making backpacks for CASA, Irene showed us a great way to do that.

Reminder: Our next meeting will be on June 10th as 3 of our officers will be on retreat!

See you soon, Kim

Members of Grateful Threads met Monday, May 5, 2025, at the Carolyn Rose Strauss Senior Center. We had a great meeting.

Theresa LeBlanc presented a trunk show of her quilting projects. She shared her history in quilting. She showed quilts she has made from the 1970s to now. She also showed small projects such as pillows, wall hangings and table runners. Theresa shared techniques specific to her projects. She told about various vendors and artists that she uses to choose projects. All of her work was very beautiful and inspiring. Everyone enjoyed her presentation.

We began membership renewals for 2025-26. Members participated in chapter "River Raffle" and shared some great Show and Tell projects.

The next chapter meeting will be Monday, June 9, 2025 at 5:30pm at Catfish Charlie's in Monroe. We will celebrate our year and enjoy a meal together.

Moonlight Musings

Greetings one and all. May was a lovely meeting with Lila Strode overseeing her last meeting as President. The love for her kids and grands was too much of a hardship and the house went on the market. She will be Texas bound just as soon as the house sells. We will keep Lila here as much and often as we can but we all understand. Thank you, Lila, for doing an awesome job as President!! Luckily for Moonlight, Robyn McGuffie answered the call to step up and finish Lila's term as president. Robyn will continue the fun that we have here on the darkside.

Our next meeting will be held out at Common Threads in Swartz. Debbie Chum will give us a tour of the services she provides at her ranch with her horses. Meeting begins a little bit earlier than normal at 5:30 Thursday, June 5th. We will have our meeting after the tour and discuss upcoming events.

Due to the 4th of July holiday, Moonlight will NOT meet for the month of June. We will, however, be busy enjoying our National Teacher's trunk show and workshop later that month, July 24-26th.

Our love and prayers go out to our dear friends, Christie McRight (Sunshine chapter) and Marie East-erling (Grateful Threads) who passed away this month, leaving our hearts a little bit sadder and our memories of these precious ladies more dear.

Prayers and well wishes for Moonlight member, Susan Wible, as she recovers from a broken finger in March and a broken femur in April. She's home from rehab at St. Francis and is getting stronger every day.

Blessings on you all! - karen bradford

2025 National Teacher.pdf

2025 National Teacher We have a national teacher. Her name is Jonce Smith. She will be teaching the techniques of the Studio 180 rulers. All the event will be at Bayou Oaks Baptist Church, 298 Joe White Rd, Monroe, LA 71203. July 24, 2025 Trunk show at 6 p.m. This is free to all members July 25, 2025 Hunter Star For those of you that have done a hunter star before this is a new technique that makes things much easier. The cost for this class is \$62.00. The guild will be paying $\frac{1}{2}$ of this cost so you will only pay \$31.00. You will receive a Book called Hidden Treasures and the Petite Hunter Star tool. When you sign up you will need to give me two checks. One for \$31.00 that will be cashed so you can receive the book ahead of time and pick you fabric. The other check will be for \$31.00 so that if you do not show up for class that check will be cashed to cover the additional cost of the book and ruler. If you do show up to class the second check will be given back to you before class. July 26, 2025 Lemoyne Star Again, if you have done the Lemoyne Star before, you will also find this technique much easier. The cost for this class will be \$54.00. The guild again will pay for $\frac{1}{2}$ so you will only pay \$27.00. This class has a pattern and a ruler. When you sign up again you will give me two checks for \$27.00 and the same goes for this class. If you show up you get the second check back and if not the second check will be cashed. If any guild member would like the bundle price that is offered to us, she will honor this, but you will have to pay the full price of \$62.00 or \$54.00. It is only members that get $\frac{1}{2}$ paid if they attend class. If you would like to check out the website it is: studio180design.net. I will start coming to the chapter meeting in March to start signing everyone up. I need to have the number of books, patterns and rulers known so that she can get them ordered and shipped to me so I can pass them out before class and you can pick your fabric. I have the book for the hunter star and ruler so I will bring that with me to the meetings, so you can see the different quilts that can be made with this technique. If you have any questions, I will be happy to answer them. You can call me at 843-991-9004 or email me at thrsleblanc@yahoo.com. Let do our best to show her our great guild.
