Hello morning stars!

Good Morning My Wonderful Morning Stars!

We had a fun meeting last month at the Senior Center, we are missing several faces and are hoping to see you a

We even had a visitor who is very excited to start getting into quilting.

Looking forward to seeing you all at our next meeting!

Kim

PS. My finger is doing much better! Watch out for those rotary cutters, mine was definitely out to get me and ge did!

The month of April brought us a lovely evening to meet and discuss all things quilting. We had a gorgeous showing of quilts for Show n Tell to inspire and motivate us. We have a few members who have gotten their 2025 guild challenge mostly done. Woohoo, yea Moonlight!!

We're glad to welcome Melinda Freeman to our fun group.

To end the evening, Robyn McGuffie showed us step by step how to do kwandi. What is kwandi? "It is a utility quilt made by African Diaspora/Siddi community of India. A spool of thread, a needle, a few scraps and mindful stitching combined with a simple technique are all that is needed for this ageless art of quilting" (stitchonline.net). Hopefully we'll have some show n tell in the next few months showing off our kwandi skills and items.

2025 National Teacher We have a national teacher. Her name is Jonce Smith. She will be teaching the techniques of the Studio 180 rulers. All the event will be at Bayou Oaks Baptist Church, 298 Joe White Rd, Monroe, LA 71203. July 24, 2025 Trunk show at 6 p.m. This is free to all members July 25, 2025 Hunter Star For those of you that have done a hunter star before this is a new technique that makes things much easier. The cost for this class is \$62.00. The guild will be paying $\frac{1}{2}$ of this cost so you will only pay \$31.00. You will receive a Book called Hidden Treasures and the Petite Hunter Star tool. When you sign up you will need to give me two checks. One for \$31.00 that will be cashed so you can receive the book ahead of time and pick you fabric. The other check will be for \$31.00 so that if you do not show up for class that check will be cashed to cover the additional cost of the book and ruler. If you do show up to class the second check will be given back to you before class. July 26, 2025 Lemoyne Star Again, if you have done the Lemoyne Star before, you will also find this technique much easier. The cost for this class will be \$54.00. The guild again will pay for $\frac{1}{2}$ so you will only pay \$27.00. This class has a pattern and a ruler. When you sign up again you will give me two checks for \$27.00 and the same goes for this class. If you show up you get the second check back and if not the second check will be cashed. If any guild member would like the bundle price that is offered to us, she will honor this, but you will have to pay the full price of \$62.00 or \$54.00. It is only members that get $\frac{1}{2}$ paid if they attend class. If you would like to check out the website it is: studio180design.net. I will start coming to the chapter meeting in March to start signing everyone up. I need to have the number of books, patterns and rulers known so that she can get them ordered and shipped to me so I can pass them out before class and you can pick your fabric. I have the book for the hunter star and ruler so I will bring that with me to the meetings, so you can see the different quilts that can be made with this technique. If you have any questions, I will be happy to answer them. You can call me at 843-991-9004 or email me at thrsleblanc@yahoo.com. Let do our best to show her our great guild.
