The Guild will be responsible for the paper goods (i.e., plates, napkins, utensils and cups) The hosting Chapter will be responsible for providing decorations, and door prizes. The hosting Chapter can purchase the paper goods and submit receipts to the Guild Treasurer for reimbursement. The Board will be responsible for drinks.

New Business

Website The website has a new look. Everyone was encouraged to check it out. Nlqg.us.

Nominating Comm. Janet asked for volunteers to serve on the Nominating Committee. Since there were no volunteers, she will be calling/drafting members to serve.

Program was presented by Susan Wible from Moonlight Chapter. She showed us how to deconstruct men's shirts and then use that fabric to make quilts. The Moonlight Chapter showed the quilts they have made from men's shirts and these will be donated to Pilots for Patients.

Door Prizes There were 20 door prizes (fall themed mug rugs, hot pads made by the members of Moonlight Chapter.)

Charity Quilts There were a total of 16 quilts to be donated to Pilots for Patients and 34 quilts for CASA for a total of 50 quilts.

Show & Tell Joan Allen, Lisa Feldhaus, Susan Wible and Theresa Thomas

Next Executive Board meeting will be October 28th at Saul Adler, Monroe.
Next Quarterly meeting will be December 2, 2023 at Saul Adler, Monroe.
