QUILTING TRUTH BOMBS PART 2

- UFOS MULTIPLY WHEN YOU'RE NOT LOOKING.
- PRESSED SEAMS SOLVE 90% OF QUILTING PROBLEMS.
- EVERY NEW PROJECT IS A FORM OF PROCRASTINATION.
- THE STASH KNOWS WHAT YOU DID LAST SUMMER.
- PRECISION IS A SUGGESTION, NOT A REQUIREMENT.

Morning Stars

Historian:	Lahonda Littleton	Board Rep:	Betsy Trapp
Parliamentarian:	Harriet Black

Hello Morning Stars!

The ladies all met at the Senior Center on August 5 while I was in Memphis Tn with Grandma Kiki duties!

I missed what has been described as an awesome program from Norma Thompson. Norma showed everyone how she does free motion and rulers on her domestic machine for the quilting of her quilts.

Several of the ladies also turned in backpacks that were made for CASA.

Also, Please remember that Seeker Springs Retreat will be here before we know it, so make sure you get your registration/payment in soon!

See you all soon!

Kim

PS If another chapter get Norma to come and share her program with your group, please let me know!

Members of Grateful Threads met for a special project on August 4 at Carolyn Rose Strauss Senior Center. The project was “The Perfect Sewing Tower”, a pattern by Kim Johnson. Each person sewed the wrap for the 5 drawer storage container to use as a sewing notion caddy. It was a great project and everyone loved their tower.

Following the project, members met for the monthly chapter meeting. We welcomed 2 new members, Nora Fleming and KaCee Bentley.

We had a great meeting discussing upcoming projects and plans for the year.

We had a great Show and Tell time, with members sharing their Sewing Towers as well as other beautiful projects.

Moonlight's meeting at the Library was Sewtastic .Several showed up for sit and stitch, it was fun seeing what everyone is working on. We finalized plans on our 250th Anniversary quilt. We also discussed plans for the upcoming Holidays, with some ideas for the start of the new year. Our next meeting will be on September 4th at Material Things. –Robyn

Moonlight met at the main library on August 7th. Susan Wible demonstrated a quilt block she designed for our upcoming red white and blue donation quilt. Karen Bradford asked members to make a 6.5 unfinished quilt block in red/white/blue for a Union Parish Project. –Jeannie
